MINING CONTRACTS

MINING CONTRACTS

Omega owns the mining equipment it uses. It is managed by a team of experienced technicians, which helps maximise the output and increase reliability. By purchasing a Mining Contract you buy into the shared profits generated by Omega's mining equipment.

The mining is GPU-based and the output is mainly in Ethereum. You don't need any technical knowledge as the entire operation is run by Omega's in-house tech team. By purchasing a Mining Contract you rent a certain amount of hash power generated by the miners.

Any revenues, earnings or income projections shown are for illustration purposes only and Omega does not guarantee profits.

How do the Mining Contracts work?

Mining earnings are added to your wallet daily in Ethereum (ETH)

Funds from your mining wallet are transferred to your wallet at the end of each week

Each contract runs for 36 months

Mining begins 30 days after the contract purchase. This delay is due to the company having to purchase, assemble and configure the miners for you

AFFILIATE PROGRAM

Similar to the Active Box affiliate program, you can increase your mining profits by recommending the Mining Contracts to others. This will automatically enrol you into the affiliate program. The Omega Mining affiliate program is based on a unilevel plan.

A unilevel plan is where all of your direct referrals are placed in your first line. Their direct referrals build your second level etc.

AFFILIATE PROGRAM

Bonuses available in Omega's unilevel plan:

Purchase Bonus

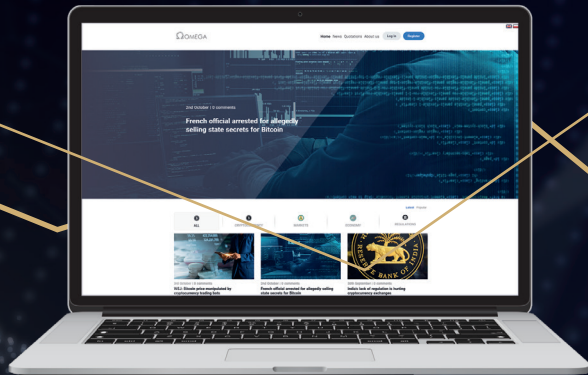

Up to 5% calculated when any of your referrals (up to 7 levels deep) purchases a mining contract.

Mining Bonus

Up to 4% based on the total hash rate purchased within your unilevel team. As long as your team earns – so do you!
